Welcome to the 75th Annual Brookville Community Picnic!

We're so glad you're here. What started after Brookville's centennial in 1950 has become a cherished tradition that brings neighbors, friends, and families together each summer.

This weekend is all about celebrating our community spirit—from Praise in the Park and the Kid's Vendor Fair on Thursday to live music, delicious food, crafts, and fun for all ages Friday and Saturday.

The picnic has deep roots, dating back to 1929, and over the years it's created countless memories—car giveaways, talent shows, cornhole tournaments, even a visit from George H.W. Bush in 1992.

We're proud to continue that tradition today. As you enjoy the weekend, stop by Shelter 3 to check out the sponsor board and thank the local businesses and organizations that help make this event happen.

This isn't just a festival—it's a homecoming. Thank you for being part of what makes Brookville special.

Enjoy the weekend!

Thank You!

The Brookville Area Chamber of Commerce sends a huge shoutout to the amazing Brookville City Employees, Brookville Fire Department, and Brookville Police Department for being the real MVPs at the picnic! Big thanks to Brookville Rental & Sales, B-Concrete, and Englewood Truck for lighting up the event. It takes a village to pull off a picnic this epic and we could not do it without these wonderful groups.
